Declaration

I, the undersigned, Jon Sigurdsson, do declare hereby, that in case of my demise, all my historical research materials and MSS. copies & extracts of ancient texts, relating to the history of Iceland, and intended to serve as a basis for the compilation of the said history, according to an understanding already arrived at, between myself and George E. J. Waterer, Esq., shall, in case of my demise, belong to the person to whom he might authorize them to deliver, to the free disposition of the said gentlemen, either by operators of my will or other authorities competent so to act in the matter.

Witness my name.

Copenhagen, June 1st 1865.

Jon Sigurdsson
