Declaration

I, the undersigned, Jon Sigurðsson, do hereby declare, that in the case of my demise, all my manuscripts, written works, MSS. copies & extracts of adventures, relating to the history of Iceland, and intended to serve as a basis for the compilation of the said history, according to an understanding already arrived to, between myself and George E. J. From Esq., shall, in case of my demise, be given up entire, to the free disposition of the said gentlemen, either by executors of my will or other authorities competent so to act in the matter.

Witness my name.

Copenhagen, June 13th 1865.

Jon Sigurðsson
